Index

Academy of Sciences, 38, 49, 285–86, 294
Admiralty sailcloth mill: composition of, 88–89; proposed reform of, 91; infection at, 168; closure of, 173, 181; plague losses and removal at, 268
Afanas'ev, Il'ia: role of, in "miracle," 186–87, 189; implication in riot, 199; sentence and disposition of, 227
Alekseev, Peter: on Amvrosii's death, 194; on suppression of rioters, 196; identification of rioters by, 198
Alimentary toxic aleukia, 15–16
Alms collection, 187, 189–92
Almshouses, 138–39
Ambassadorial Court: manufactories at, 88; investigation of, 154; workers left at, 169; effects of plague on, 270
Amilakhorov, Prince Elisei, 96
Amilakhorov, Prince Evgenii, 210
Amulets, 32, 184, 232
Amvrosii (Zertis-Kamenskii): patronage of Foundling Home by, 94; orders precautions, 120; criticizes emergency measures, 149–50; on processions and prayers, 166; on precautions for sacraments, 178; on impending disaster, 184; policies and unpopularity of, 187–90; attempts to disperse crowd, 189–90; flees from rioters, 193; murder of, 194–95, 262; funeral and replacement of, 211–12
Andreev, Vasilii: role of, in Amvrosii's murder, 194; condemned for murder, 198; conviction and execution of, 226–27
Andronovka (economic hamlet), 169–70, 236
Anosov, Pavel, 156–57
Anthony's fire, 139–40
Antiplague precautions: potential bad effects of, 34–35; provisions of Medical Collegium for, 43; instituted in Moscow, 119–21; proposals of, by Medical Collegium, 142–43; gradual abolition of, 155; end of, 253–54. See also Bills of health; Cordon: Mail, precautions against plague in; Money; Prayers, public; Quarantine
Apoplexy, 156
Apothecaries, 38–39
Apothecary Bureau, 40
Apothecary Chancery, 41
Archiater (chief imperial physician), 41–42
Argilandr, Karl, 106
Arkharov, Nikolai, 228, 271, 300
Army, Russian: losses of, in plague of 1709, 22; and plague of 1738, 25–26; role of, in plague precautions, 30–31; medical services of, expanded, 45–46; medical corps of, in Turkish war, 58–60; invasion of Danubian Principalities by, 102; infected by plague, 102–9; spreads plague, 107–8; supplies reinforcements for Eropkin, 173; losses of, under Eropkin, 180; suppression of rioters by, 195–97; troops with Orlov, 203–4
Arouet, François Marie [pseud. Voltaire], 56, 62, 102
Artisans, Moscow, 209–10
Asch, Baron Dr. Georg von: appointed to Medical Collegium, 44; on health reforms, 52–53; requests more practitioners, 58–59, 106, 109; reaction of, to plague, 103, 105–7, 109; on Grave's retirement, 109; speech on plague by, 284; commemorative medal of, 284–85; on plague inoculation, 294–95
Asch, Dr. Peter von, 109, 127, 133, 280
Assigned workers. See Labor, bondaged
Astrakhan: plague from, 17; plague of 1692 at, 21; plague of 1727 at, 23–24; quarantine at, 33; plague outbreaks near, 304
Austria: establishes cordon, 107; envoy of, on Moscow plague, 126, 174; medical police legislation of, 174, 214
Azov, 21, 26
Azzariti, Dr. Aruntius, 32

Bakhmetev, Nikolai: on removal of slaughterhouses, 97; investigates epidemic, 119; visits Petersburg, 128, 134, 141; fights second outbreak, 141–42, 145–46, 148; fears subsistence crisis, 177–78; requests reinforcements, 180; response of, to rioting, 192, 197; on postriot calm, 201; role of, on Executive Commission, 215, 221; replacement of, 228; mentioned, 155
Balashov quarantine, 135, 137–40
Balkans, 21, 25–26, 101
Baltic Provinces, 13, 21–22, 40
Baranovich, Dr. Maksim, 106, 109
Barbers, 37, 40, 216, 218, 224
Baskakov, Vasilii, 303, 212–13, 215
Baths, public, 139, 155, 164, 192
Bazhenov, Vasilii, 96, 198, 215, 275
Beggary, 71–72, 139, 211, 252, 266
Beloglazov, Ivan, 184, 198, 201
Belyi Gorod, 65, 76, 78, 192
Bender, 26, 60, 108–9
Biakov, Savelii, 186, 189, 227
Bidloo, Dr. Nicolaas, 46–47
Bielcke, Johanna Dorothea, 150
Bielfeld, Johann Friedrich: on large cities and industry, 63, 90, 265; on medical police, 146
Big Woolen Court: origins and composition of, 86–87, 89; losses and proposed removal of, 90–91; epidemic at, 129–34; mortality at, 130–33; evacuation of and fugitives from, 135, 140–41, 200; treatment of cloth at, 138, 155; linked with disease, 140–51; review of disease at, 142; fear of recrudescence at, 154–55; impact of plague on, 257, 268–70; Rost on outbreak at, 289
Bills of health, 128, 151, 160
Black Death: in medieval Europe, 2; symptoms of, 3; in medieval Russia, 12–16; social impact of, 14–15, 28; and idea of contagion, 29; comparison of, with other Russian outbreaks, 298
Bloch, Johann, 44
Bloodletting, 224, 292
Blumentrost, Dr. Johann, 41
Blumentrost, Dr. Laurentius, 32
Bolotnaia Square, 69, 87, 169
Bolotov, Andrei, 120, 241–44, 264
Borovitskie Gates, 191, 195
Borovsk, 170–71
Bradley, Richard, 292
Briansk, 116
British Factory, 250
Browne, Georg von, 114
Bruce, General Count Jakob, 147, 202
Brückner, Alexander, 38–39, 280
Bubonic plague: discovery of bacterium of, 1; recent incidence of, 1; early epidemics and pandemics of, 1–2; symptoms of, 3–4, 162–64, 226, 290; ecology and modes of spread of, 4–7, 106–7; morbidity and mortality of, 3; seasonality of, 4; and housing conditions, 5–6; definition of early epidemics of, 11–12; early Slavic terms for, 11; effects of, on Russia before 1770, 28; confusion of, with other diseases, 24–25, 56–57, 128–29, 143–45, 155–60, 162–63; in Danubian Principalities, 60; effect of, on Catherine's view of Moscow, 62–63; impact of, on Moscow population, 257–64; linked to textiles, 80, 86–87, 89, 92–93, 118, 129–33, 156–59, 168–69, 236, 289, 298; Orraeus's description of, 105; outbreak of, in Moscow, 115–24; popular conceptions of, 143–45; waning of, in springtime, 150–51; linked with warm weather, 152–53; territorial spread of, 162; practitioners identify and explain, 212–13; sources of outbreaks of, 237; influence of, on Guberniia Reform, 276–77; psychological effects of, 278; reasons for waning of, 303–4. See also Apoplexy; Drunkenness; Epilepsy
Bunge (apothecary), 111–12
Burial practices, 69–70, 129, 171, 178, 197, 206
Burial precautions, 134, 139, 158, 219, 252–53, 273–74
Burukhin, Trifon, 180

Cameralists: influence of, on Catherine's policies, 42; ideas of, on cities and industry, 62–63, 71–72, 90–91; on medical police, 146; influence of, on Plague Commission, 214; on city planning, 276–77; explanation of Moscow epidemic by, 291
Casanova, Giacomo, 64
Cathcart, Baron Charles: on spread of plague, 109; on plague's decline, 150; denial of plague by, 174; on Orlov's mission, 203–4; fears for foreign trade, 249–50; opposes quarantine, 250; on Moscow mortality, 260
Catherine II: general domestic policies of, 61–63; drafting of Guberniia Reform by, 273; antipathy of, for Moscow, 61–63, 232, 274, 278, 291, 300; observes rats and mice, 69; efforts of, to slow growth, 71–72; disdain of, for noble housing, 78; establishes planning commission, 78–79;

plans new Kremlin palace, 96, 275; attempts to reform Moscow, 271–78; role of, in new plan, 275–76; industrial and labor policies of, 65, 80, 84–85, 91; on removal of industry, 89–93, 174, 265–70; attitude of, toward medical practice, 44–45; funds quarantines, 34; interest of, in public health, 36, 38, 41–43, 50–58, 93–94, 277–78; reinstates Dr. Poletika, 34, 45; and smallpox inoculation, 55–56, 294; recruits practitioners, 280; censures Dr. Asch, 285; sponsors Vien's tractate, 286; and Dr. Pogoretskii's inoculation proposals, 294; refutes newspapers, 102; learns of plague, 107–10; fears for Moscow, 115; reaction of, to Kiev plague, 113–15; plague reported to, 118, 120–21; fears and concepts of plague of, 147–48; response of, to first Moscow outbreak, 123, 125–28; responses of, to second outbreak, 145–50; proposed experiment by, 148; releases clothworkers, 155; dispatches Lerche to Moscow, 161; encourages Eropkin, 166; doubts about plague of, 174, 248; orders emergency measures, 173–74; reaction of, to Moscow criticism, 175–76; supervision of quarantines by, 181, 206; verdict of, on rioting, 198; anxiety about Moscow of, 202; ire for Saltykov of, 202–3, 228; organizes Orlov mission, 203–4; reaction of, to rioting, 203–5; role of, in Plague Commission, 214; Orlov's report to, 208; emergency program of, implemented, 231–32; anxiety about Petersburg of, 246–48; replaces Orlov, 226–28, 342 n. 88; worries about recurrence, 251–53; on losses and Moscow population, 257, 260; Khastatov's petition to, 267; Urusova's praise of, 300; general responses of, to Moscow plague, 299–301; mentioned, 109, 141, 197, 225

Catherine's Hospital, 277–78

Cattle plague, 277, 292

Caucasus, 12, 13, 26, 33, 101, 304

Cemeteries. See Burial practices

Cherkassov, Baron Alexander: role of, in medical reforms, 42–45, 54, 58; clashes with Poletika, 45; and Catherine's inoculation, 56; role of, in plague dispute, 145

Chernyshev, Count Zakhar, 58, 246

Chicherin, Nikolai, 85, 97, 247

Chief Municipal Administration, 138

Chief Police Administration, 53, 67–68, 72

Chief War Commissariat, 64, 86, 90–91, 155

Cholera, 296, 298

Chudov Monastery, 192–93, 195

Chumak (drover), 27

Church, Moscow: parishes of, 63; role of, in social welfare, 94; burials in parishes, 132; processions of, banned, 221; chapels at plague cemeteries, 274. See also Religious responses to plague

Church, Russian Orthodox, 14, 110

City-physician, office of, 51

City planning, 65, 275–76

Clergy: losses among, in earlier plagues, 17, 24; recruitment of practitioners from, 29, 46; plague among, 113; public prayers by, 118, 149; role of, in anti-plague efforts, 146, 207; collection of vital statistics by, 149; sponsorship of processions by, 166; monastic, precautions for, 173; grievances of, 188–89; role of, at Varvarskie Gates, 186–89; Amvrosii's reforms of, 187–89; role of, in murder and rioting, 195, 198; reinstitution of discipline in, 211–12, 221; quarantine for, 217; reactions of, in Tula province, 242–44; losses among, during plague, 261–62; attempts to reform, 274–75

Cloth. See Textiles

Clothworkers: popular attitudes toward, 132–33; problems of evacuation of, 140–42, 148–49; release of, from quarantine, 154–55; measures for unemployed, 168–69; assist Eropkin, 181–82; unrest among, at Yaroslavl mill, 239–40; losses among, 260; reward for hospital service of, 269

Collegium of Manufactures. See Manufactures, Collegium of

Colonization, Russian, 20–21, 27–28, 304

Commerce: and the spread of plague, 4, 7, 20–21, 27–28, 107, 116, 233, 245–46, 249–51; problem of quarantine policy, 33–34; with the south, 73–75; protection of, from plague, 145, 147, 249–51; restriction of, 174; and special markets, 177; linked to provincial outbreaks, 240, 245

Commission for the Rebuilding of St. Petersburg and Moscow, 78–79, 275

Constantinople, 25–26, 34, 101–2

Contagionist theory, 287–92. See also Miasmatico-contagionist theory of disease

Convicts: burial duties of, 165, 173, 182, 244; losses, recruitment, and rewards of, 182, 211; forcible release of, 206; use of, in fumigation tests, 222

Cook, John, 32

Copenhagen, 21, 107

Cordon: use of, in earlier plagues, 7, 18, 20–22, 26; failure of, 34; introduction of system of, 30–31; at Khotin, 103, 105–7; in the Ukraine, 109, 111–15; around Moscow, 118, 120, 126, 161, 170, 173–74, 176, 232; study of foreign models of, 127–28; at Petersburg, 247; end of, 254
Corpses, abandonment of, 167, 220–21, 252–53, 287
Cossacks, 20, 108
Council, imperial: oversees precautions proposed by, 114–15; initial reaction of, to Moscow outbreak, 125–26, 145; reaction of, to second outbreak, 145–47; on relocation of manufactories, 154; gradual abolition of precautions by, 150, 155; rejects Eropkin's resignation, 166; Catherine questions plague before, 174; reaction of, to Moscow criticism, 175–76; knowledge of Moscow mortality of, 202; confers with Orlov, 203; Catherine condemns Moscow before, 205; on removal of village, 232; considers precautions, 246–47; concerned for provinces and foreign trade, 246, 249; replaces Saltykov, 202
Coxe, William, 64, 70, 278
Crimea, Tatar khanate of, 13, 17, 19, 26–27, 33, 101, 299–300
Crossroads clerics, 187–88, 275, 337 n. 26
Crutta, Dr. Dominicus, 54

Dahl, Dr. Conrad, 60, 127
Danilov Monastery, 148, 155, 158, 193, 206–7, 217, 273
Danubian Principalities, 25, 59–60, 101–9, 126, 161
Danzig, 21, 145, 207
Davidov, Ivan, 203
Debrecen, 302–3
Decreed enterprises. See Registered industry
Dehio, Matthias, 294–95
District medical inspectors: assignment of, 136–37; instructions and impromptu consilium of, 139–40; at consilium, 142; on changing symptoms, 163; reports to Plague Commission by, 222–23
District supervisors: origins of institution of, 146; recruitment and functions of, 148–49; network of, enlarged, 172, 219; and new quarantine policy, 213; search for hidden burials by, 252; deaths among, 261
Dmitrov, 233, 244
Dnieper River, 26, 33, 127
Dniester River, 26, 101, 103, 105
Doctors. See Medical practitioners
Dohnell, Dr. Johann, 22
Dokuchaev, Il'ia, 86, 130
Dolgorukii, Prince Mikhail, 142
Dolgov, Luka, 215, 262
Don River, 23, 26–27
Donskoi Monastery, 194–95, 211–12, 227
Drunkenness: resemblance to plague of, 157; among rioters, 192, 194, 196; among clergy, 188, 211
Dudishkin, Erofei, 267
Dudishkin, Koz'ma (brother), 267
Dysentery, 12, 17

Economy, Collegium of, 46, 73, 138–39, 170
Egidi, Erhart, 26, 32
Elachich, Frants, 44
Elizabeth I, 41, 55, 57, 84
Elizavetgrad, 27, 101, 128, 280
Elokhov, Rodion, 179
Emotions, influence of, on disease, 123, 138, 144
Engel, Heinrich, 129
Enzootic plague, 2, 107–8, 304
Epilepsy, 156
Epizootic plague, 2, 118, 132, 233
Erasmus, Dr. Johann: teaching duties of, 49–50, 52; visits Big Woolen Court, 133; directs Medical Office, 139, 142–43; inspects Knutova, 168; advisory of, countermanded, 207, 212, 283; clashes with Plague Commission, 223; on suspicious case, 251
Ergotism, 15–16, 139
Eropkin, Peter: plague duties of, 146, 148–49; optimistic reports by, 150; sanitary surveillance by, 152–53; release of clothworkers by, 154–55; suspicion of new outbreak of, 156–60; modifies quarantine policy, 162, 168, 181; doubts of, about new outbreak, 162–65, 167–68; adopts emergency program, 172–75, 178; closes manufactories, 168–69, 181; concerned for security, 174–75, 189–90, 192, 206; personnel under, 180–82, 211; Saltykov's criticism of, 185; suppresses riot, 195–97; identification of rioters by, 198; resignation of, proposed, 166, 197, 206; reorganizes antiplague effort, 202, 206–8, 211; implicates industry in plague, 204–5; temporary collapse of, 206; role of, in revised antiplague effort, 212–13, 215; rewards and honors of, 228; issues bills of health, 151, 231; on plague in hinterland, 232; on suspicious cases, 251–52; on weather and plague's end, 252–53; on mortality and morbidity, 259–60, 345–46 n. 5; mentioned, 272–73, 291, 300–301

Estland, 22, 140
Evacuation: during plague of 1709, 22; at Astrakhan in 1728, 24; consideration of, 133–34; implementation of, 135; proposals and problems of, 140–42, 151
Evreinov, Ivan, 266–67
Evreinov, Matvei (brother), 266–67
Executive Commission, 215–16, 218–19, 221, 251, 253

Fabri, Dr. Johannes, 33
Fabrikanty. See Manufactory operators
Factories. See Manufactories, Moscow
Famine: linked with epidemics, 15–17, 25, 102–7; in Poland, 107; in Novgorod region, 249. See also Subsistence crisis
Famintsyn, Andrei, 119–20, 123, 128, 150
Fear, influence of, on disease, 123, 138
Fischer, Dr. Johann, 32, 41, 50
Fleas: role of, in plague, 4–6; attraction of, to textiles, 80, 86–87, 89; attraction of, to grain, 107; effect of cold weather on, 225
Flight: from plagues to 1770, 14, 18, 21, 26, 29; from Danubian Principalities, 103–4, 107; from Kiev, 113, 116; from Moscow, 171, 173–75, 183–84; concern for, in Moscow and Petersburg, 231–32; and spread of plague, 233; from villages, 236–37; risks and mortality from, 238
Folk practitioners, 40, 52–53, 55
Foreign Suburb, 78, 156, 181, 223
Foundling Home, Moscow: origins and operation of, 52, 93–94; lottery of, postponed, 129; medical inspection of, 139; cessation of admissions to, 173; suspicions of, 189; reception of orphans and wares at, 210; exemption of medical staff of, from plague duties, 217; infection at, 263–64; mentioned, 193
Fracastorius, Girolamo, 287
Francia, Dr. Alphonsus, 128
Fredericks, Baron, 249
Free Economic Society, 53, 62
Fumigation, 31–32, 123, 129, 139, 172, 216, 222

Garloff, Friedrich, 44
Germ theory of disease, 292–93
Golden Horde, 13, 15–16
Golitsyn, Prince Alexander, 247
Golitsyn, Prince Vasilii, 150, 153
Golovin Palace, 69, 94
Golts, Luka, 218
Gorgoli, Dr. Sava, 129
Göttingen University, 39
Govii (surgeon), 239
Grain: as food for rats, 4; trade of, in Moscow, 69, 78; trade of, at Lyskovo, 245
Grave, Christian: on Khotin plague, 106, 109; illness and retirement of, 109; diagnosis of second outbreak of, 141–42; advises flight, 142; problems of diagnosis of, 143, 152, 156–57; inspection duties of, 153, 162; oversees fumigation, 210, 222; role of, in revised antiplague effort, 213, 215; reward of, for plague service, 280–81; mentioned, 291
Great Britain: fears of plague in, 107, 126–27, 250–51; credit crisis of 1772 in, and Russian trade, 251; plague mortality in, compared to Moscow, 259
Greek merchants, 28, 138
Grunt, Egor, 267
Guberniia Reform: office of land-captain in, 273; reflections of plague in, 276–78, 299; role of medical practitioners in, 280; reorganization of administrative units in, 277
Gusiatnikov, Mikhail, 86, 156–57, 200
Guthrie, Dr. Matthew, 284, 291–92, 294

Halle University, 39, 50, 122
Halliday, Dr. Matthew, 238–39, 241, 245
Holy Synod: pursues mendicant clergy, 72; publishes public prayers, 149; reaction of, to Amvrosii's death, 211–12; takes precautions, 247, 274–75
Hospital attendants, 118–24, 178–79
Hospitals, 47, 277–78. See also Catherine's Hospital; Kronstadt Naval Hospital; Moscow General Infantry Hospital and Surgical School; Paul's Hospital; St. Petersburg Admiralty Hospital
Housing: types and distribution of, in Moscow, 76–79; in Kiev, 110–11; at Vvedenskie Hills, 118–19, 123–24; linked to plague, 157, 159–60, 238, 240, 288–89; effect of, on differential mortality, 262–65; losses of, from plague and fire, 264–65
Huxham, Dr. John, 282

Ice massages, 148, 293
Icons: Muscovite veneration of, 186–87; at Varvarskie Gates, 189–90, 274–75, 278
Industry, Moscow: growth and restrictive policies of, 71, 73–75; as threat to public health, 89–91; efforts to remove, 89–93, 174, 204–5; impact of plague on, 265–71

Influenza, 15
Inoculation: against plague, 293–96; against smallpox, 55–57, 93–94, 128, 294
Investigatory Branch, 139, 193, 274
Ivanov, Anton, 191–93
Ivanov, Peter, 186
Izium, 26, 32

Jaellatchitsch, Franciscus, 44
James's Powders, 105, 224, 292
Jassy, 103–5, 108–9
Jews, 107, 114
Justi, Johann Heinrich Gottlob von: criticizes large cities and industry, 63, 73, 90; on quarantines and public order, 134; on medical police, 146

Kadashevskii Court, 88, 169, 270
Kaftyrev, Aleksei, 179–80
Kalinin, Stepan, 252
Kaluga, 218, 230, 241
Kamerarius, Elias, 293–94
Kamer Collegium, 134, 192, 209, 261
Kazan, 18, 91
Keresturi, Ferenz, 49–50
Kerstens, Dr. Johann, 49–50
Khar'kov, 26, 32, 109
Khastatov, Vasilii, 267
Khotin, 59, 103, 105–9, 124, 141
Kiev: earlier plagues at, 15, 17, 22; reports plague in south, 26–27; role of, in trade, 28; fears for, 103; population, layout, and governance of, 110; plague of 1770–71 in, 110–14, 116; erratic weather at, 129, 153; rumors of plague at, 127; unrest in, compared with Moscow, 201; plague reported at, 246
Kiev guberniia, 33–34, 113–15
Kircher, Athanasius, 293
Kitai-gorod, 65, 76, 88, 154, 164, 192
Klein, Georgii, 241
Klin district, 92, 155
Klingshtet, Timofei von, 127
Kliucharev, Aleksandr, 156, 159, 163, 261
Kliuev, Gavrilo, 168
Knol, Veniamin, 218
Knutov, Fedor, 168, 260–61
Kobyla (rioter), 196
Kolosov, Pankrat, 168–69
Kondoidi, Dr. Pavel, 41, 47
Körber, Dr. Peter Fridrich: tractate of, 283; on miasma and corpses, 287; on plague, rats, and food, 292; criticizes germ theory, 292; on plague inoculation, 294; mentioned, 286
Korobovskoi, Vasilii, 178–79
Krasnoe Selo, 156, 163
Krechetnikov, Peter, 239–40
Kremenchug, 128–29, 300
Kremlin: plague of 1654 at, 18; functions of, 65; vermin in, 69; rioters' assault of, 192–93, 195–96; Catherine's precautions for, 204; as symbol of authority, 272; mentioned, 86
Kremlin palace, 96, 147, 253, 275
Kronstadt Naval Hospital, 47, 55
Kruten, Dr. Matvei, 50
Kuhlemann, Dr. Johann: absent from consilium, 133, 163, 213; exempt from plague duties, 137; doubts of, about plague, 144–45, 162; acknowledgment of plague by, 165
Kurland, 40, 114
Kursk, 21, 26, 254
Kuznetsov, Ivan, 219
Kvashin-Samarin, Andrei, 245

Labor, bondaged: role of, in Moscow industry, 80, 83–84, 335 n. 55; legislation against, 92; effects of plague on, 267–71
Labor, hired, 80, 83–85, 268–71
Lado, Dr. Christian, 133, 140, 162
Land-captain, office of, 273, 276–77
Lazaret. See Quarantine
Le Clerc, Nicholas Gabriel, 283, 286, 292
Lefortovo, 69, 94, 178–79, 217, 232, 251
Legislative Commission, 52–54, 61–63, 72, 83–84, 91–92, 273
Lepenitskii, Ivan, 179
Lerche, Dr. Johann: supervises pesthouse, 32; proposes medical reforms, 42; fights syphilis, 54; dispatched against plague, 107–8; on Kiev plague, 111–13; arrival of, in Moscow, 121, 161; weather observations of, 153, 200, 225–26; initial inspections and diagnoses of, 162–65; criticizes policies, 171–72, 178; issues advisory, 182–83, 207, 283; supports Moscow practitioners, 213; plague duties of, 217–18; on Moscow's losses, 257, 260
Lestock, Count Hermann, 41
Levshin, Alexander, 215, 217
Levshin, Platon, 271, 274–75
Leyden University, 39, 46–47, 49–50, 122, 281
Libgolt, Peter, 218
Likhonin, Grigorii, 86
Lindemann, Dr. Andreas, 44, 52
Livland, 19, 22, 40, 55–56, 114, 283
Lomonosov, Mikhail, 28–29, 51–52, 56
London plague of 1665, 302–3
Lunin, Yakov, 189–91
Lyskovo, 244–45

Magistraty. See Chief Municipal Administration; Moscow Municipal Administration
Maikov, Vasilii, 300
Mail, precautions against plague in, 26, 31–32, 205, 246
Makulov, Prince Peter, 170, 215–16
Mamonov (president of Moscow Municipal Administration), 180–81
Mamonov, Fedor, 193
Mansurov, Pavel, 247
Manufactories, Moscow: pollution by, 68; employment of economic peasants in, 73–74; definition and distribution of, 80–89; numbers of, infected, 265–66; removal of, from center, 276. See also Admiralty sailcloth mill; Ambassadorial Court; Big Woolen Court; Kadashevskii Court
Manufactory operators: ownership of housing by, 76–78; definition and functions of, 82–86; proposal to reduce numbers of, 266–67; provisions of, for idled workers,168–69; survive plague, 262; oppose relocation, 266–67
Manufactures, Collegium of: against trade embargo, 28; role of, in Moscow, 64; efforts of, against beggary, 71–72; persecution of nondecreed enterprises by, 81–83, 159; criticizes bondaged labor, 84; on removal of industry, 90–93; 154–55, 266–67; licensing and taxing policies of, 92; suspicions of disease in, 129–30; role of, in precautions, 134–36; search for fugitive workers by, 140–41; confinement of epidemic by, 142; medical inspections by, 168; disposition of idled workers by, 168–69; abolition of, 270
Margraf, Friedrich, 136, 142, 148, 261
Marseilles, plague of 1720 at, 28, 145, 302–3
Mead, Dr. Richard, 283, 286, 292
Medical Chancery, 41–43, 51–52, 54
Medical Collegium: structure and functions of, 42–45; recruitment of practitioners by, 40, 59–60, 280; authority of, to grant M.D., 38, 43, 45; clash of, with Pogoretskii, 48–49; proposes reforms, 52–53, 58, 95; releases Grave, 109; assigns practitioners to the Ukraine, 115; fears plague in south, 128–29; on Rinder-Shafonskii dispute, 145; Famintsyn's report to, 150; encourages research, 282; Vien's service in, 286; mentioned, 106, 143
Medical Consilium: debates initial outbreak, 119–20; recommends evacuation, 133–34; urges supplementary precautions, 142–43; reviews second outbreak, 142; modifies quarantine policy, 148; certifies clothworkers, 155; response of, to third outbreak, 163–65
Medical Education: dispatches Russians abroad, 41, 45–46, 49–50. See also Moscow University; Surgical schools
Medical Office (Moscow): under city-physician, 51; informed of epidemic, 119; supervised by Rinder, 121–22; supervises investigation and precautions, 133, 136–37; criticism of, 136–37; change of leadership of, 139; senate pressure on, 141–42; polls surgeons, 165; analyzes drugs, 179
Medical practitioners: growth in numbers of, 30, 37–40, 42, 280; role of, in medical reforms, 42–43; salaries and service conditions of, 36, 57–58, 60; number and types of, in Moscow, 89, 95; treatment of plague by, 105; reactions of, in Kiev plague, 111–13; debates about plague by, 103–5, 119–24, 130, 133–34, 139–42, 145, 147, 162–65, 281; explication of plague and precautions by, 142–45, 212, 213; diagnostic problems of, in third outbreak, 155–60; criticize processions, 166; plague duties of, 22, 24–25, 27, 31–37, 115–16, 137, 172, 175, 217–19, 280–81; popular animosity toward, 50, 178–79, 197, 206; antiplague efforts by, in the provinces, 114–15, 234, 238–40, 245; punishment of, 218–19; rewards of, for plague service, 33, 172, 280–81; inspections by, in Petersburg, 247–48; duties of, in Guberniia Reform, 276–77; losses among, to plague, 109, 172, 225, 261, 352 n. 12; effects of plague on, 279–81, 301–2; general role of, in Moscow plague, 298, 302–3; writings and publications about plague by, 33, 182–83, 283–86, 295–96
Mel'gunov, Aleksei, 34, 203, 209–10, 234–35
Meltzer, Dr. Frantz, 225, 281, 284, 291–92
Merchants, Moscow: structure of, 74–75; housing of, 76–77; role of, in industry, 82–85; implication of, in suspicious deaths, 156–58; organize quarantines, 180–81; losses among, during plague, 262–63, 265; property gains among, from plague, 264–65; decline to maintain chapels, 274
Merchants, Russian: mortality among, at Astrakhan, 24; role of, in textile trade, 28; deaths among, in Kaluga, 241; flee from Kiev, 112
Mertens, Dr. Charles de: on Moscow

Mertens, Dr. Charles de (continued) population, 70–71, 175; service of, at Foundling Home, 94; observations of weather by, 120, 151, 153, 212, 288; role of, in antiplague efforts, 120, 128, 133, 137, 142; on criticism of physicians, 150; on Preobrazhenskoe outbreak, 159; on changing symptoms, 163, 226; house of, attacked, 193; on Moscow's losses, 257; on mortality patterns, 160, 260, 263–64, 291; tractate of, 284–85; on corpses and plague, 287; on micromiasma, 288; contagionist perspective of, 289–90; on nature of plague, 290, 292; on plague treatment, 292, 295
Mescherskii, Prince Platon, 114–15
Meyer (apothecary), 222
Miasmatico-contagionist theory of disease: Rinder-Shafonskii debate, 123–24; relation of, to precautions, 143; on subterranean disease sources, 147–48; influence of, on relocation of industry, 154; influence of, on plague tractates, 287–92
Mikel, Johann, 238–39
Minderer, Johann, 284, 292
Minne, Andrei, 245
Mitrofanov, Dr. Sila, 50, 111–12, 349 n. 12
Modell, Johann, 44
Money: collections of, at Varvarskie Gates, 187, 189–92; special precautions for, 31, 127, 246
Mongols, 12–14. See also Golden Horde
Montague, Lady Mary Wortley, 55
Morozov, Ivan, 218
Morozov, Nikita (brother), 218
Mortality, plague: in Moldavia, 108–9; in Kiev, 113; at Big Woolen Court, 130–33; stabilization of, 148–51, 160–61; confusing patterns of upsurge of, 161–62, 167–68; residential, occupational, and familial patterns of, 168–69; new method of reporting, 172; rapid upsurge of, 172, 175, 184–86; among rioters, 196; temporary decline of, 200–201; high level of, into fall, 212, 224–26; patterns of, in provinces, 234–37, 239–40; total of, in Moscow, 257–60; sexual and age-specific, 258–60, 345–46 n. 5; proportional, 260; Samoilovich on dynamics of, 290–91; comparisons of, in Moscow, 302–3
Moscow: plagues in, before 1770, 16–19, 26, 31; textile production and trade in, 28, 79–89; medical community and public health of, 39–42, 51, 53, 93–95; Catherine's views of, 61–63; local conceptions of, 63–64; size and layout of, 64–67; grain trade in, 69; population size and structure of, 70–75; educational and cultural facilities in, 72–73; housing in, 76–79; industrial pollution of, 89–91; initial outbreak in, 115–24; closure of administration of, 173; earlier riots in, 197; losses in, from plague, 257–60
Moscow district, 27, 234–35, 273
Moscow garrison school, 173
Moscow General Infantry Hospital and Surgical School: foundation and problems of, 46–47; venereal patients at, 54; expansion of, 94–95; epidemics among attendants at, 118–24; cessation of admissions to, 173; resistance among attendants at, 179; request for practitioners from, 218
Moscow guberniia: composition of, 65, 277; merchantry in, 73; industry in, 82, 89; cordon established in, 115–16; ban on Nezhin imports by, 171; population, urbanization, and economy of, 229–30
Moscow Municipal Administration, 138, 180, 272–74
Moscow nakaz: origins and significance of, 63; overlooks rats, 67; on pollution, 68, 70, 96; on social abuses, 72; on fire hazards, 79; on equalization of fabrikanty, 83, 93; on prohibition of new industry, 92; on public health, 95; influence of, on new city plan, 276; influence of, on Guberniia Reform, 277–78
Moscow province, 229, 235–37
Moscow Synodal Office, 116, 180, 211, 217, 244
Moscow University: medical training at, 38, 43, 49–50; public lecture at, 69–70; medical inspection of, 139; classes postponed at, 173; survival of plague at, 263
Moskovskie vedomosti, 63, 78, 182
Moskva River, 65, 67–68, 87, 94–95, 276
Mounsey, Dr. James, 41, 51, 53, 58, 282
Münnich, Burkhart Christoph von, 25
Münnich, Count Ernst, 249
Mycotoxicoses, 15–16

Naryshkin, Lev, 246
Neglinnaia River, 67–68, 276
New Serbia, 27, 61
Nezhin, 28, 114, 116, 129, 171, 246
Nikon (Amvrosii's brother), 193
Nikon (patriarch of Moscow), 18, 29
Nilus (staff-surgeon), 247–48
Nizhnii-Novgorod, 15, 18, 244–45
Nobility: exemption from death penalty of, 31; and medical training, 37; influx of, to Moscow, 72–73; housing for, 76–78;

role of, in industry, 82–83; departure from Moscow of, 142, 174, 232; losses among, to plague, 19, 167–68, 260–61; quarantine for, 216–17; removal of Moscow enterprises of, 266; role of, in local precautions, 232–33, 235, 240–42, 264–65, 273; sponsorship of triumphal gates by, 300–301
Novgorod: early epidemics in, 12–18, 22, 30; district, epidemic in, 248; guberniia, infection in, 176, 246, 248–49
Novorossiia guberniia, 27, 34, 246

Old Believers: restrictions on, eased, 62; influx of, to Moscow, 70, 262; deaths among, 163; implication of, in riots, 197–98; quarantine and cemeteries for, 181, 274; mentioned, 74
Orlov, Count Grigorii: as patron of Shipov, 115; Moscow mission of, 203–4; reaction of, to riots, 204; countermands Erasmus's advisory, 207; appraisal of Moscow by, 208; introduces new policies, 209–12; first announcement of, 208–9; seeks medical guidance, 212–13; arranges Amvrosii's funeral, 211–12; establishes Plague Commission, 214–16; offers house as quarantine, 216–17; raises plague rewards, 218; orders special chapels, 219; pessimistic about epidemic, 225–26; presides over trial, 226–27; recall of, 226–28; reaction of, to provincial outbreaks, 239, 241; on removal of industry, 265–66; criticizes Muscovites, 198, 230, 271–72, 274; memorial to, 300; mentioned, 237, 291, 301
Orraeus, Dr. Gustav: obtains M.D., 45; on plague in Moldavia, 103–5; visits council, 147; on Moscow outbreak, 140, 142; departure of, from Moscow, 141; on recrudescence, 152; with Orlov mission, 203; role of, in antiplague efforts, 212–13, 215–17, 222–23, 283; rewards of, 280–81; tractate of, 284; protests medal, 285; ideas of, on plague, 287, 290, 292, 295
Ottoman Empire: 101–2, 109, 125. See also Russo-Turkish War of 1736–39; Russo-Turkish War of 1768–74

Pagenkampf, Johann, 52
Panin, Count Nikita, 55–56, 125, 150, 249
Panin, Count Peter, 60, 107, 133–34, 151, 153
Paul Petrovich, 38, 55–56, 93, 285
Paul's Hospital, 93, 173, 217, 278
Paulsohn, Dr. Paul, 114, 171
Peasants: migration of, to Moscow, 73–74; role of, in industry, 83–85, 91, 230; housing conditions for, 230; deaths among, in Moscow, 237; defiance of precautions by, 241
Pecken, Dr. Christian, 44, 113–14, 127
Pegelau, Johann, 136, 306
Pel (surgeon), 244–45
Persia: plague in, 13, 23, 26
Peter I the Great: measures of, against plague, 22; interested in public health, 31, 36, 38, 41, 45–47; cited by Catherine, 205; mentioned, 21
Peter III, 41, 57–58, 62, 82, 84
Plague Commission: predecessor of 1738, 26; origins, purposes, and structure of, 212–16; first announcement of, 216; mobilizes practitioners, 217–19; on concealment and squatters, 220–21; fumigation campaign by, 222; slaughter of dogs and cats by, 221–22; medical advisory of, 222; supervision of practitioners by, 222–25; Swallow's evaluation of, 228; on provincial practitioners, 234, 245; on suspicious cases, 251–53; precautions taken by, for spring, 252–53; last activities and abolition of, 253–54; on Moscow's losses, 257; influence of, on Guberniia Reform, 276–77; rewards practitioners, 280–81; research efforts by, 282, 284; mentioned, 298
Plague Riot: investigation of, 204–5, 208; effect of, on Catherine, 232, 299; impact of, on provinces, 242; comparison of, to other epidemics, 298, 302–3
Plague tractates: first, in Russia, 33; composition and publication of, 283–84; discussion of plague in, 286–96
Pneumonic plague: definition of, 3–4; and Black Death, 13–15, 19; in 1709 epidemic, 22; and idea of contagion, 29; absence of, in 1771, 220, 297
Pogoretskii, Dr. Peter: at Moscow surgical school, 48–49; inspects Big Woolen Court, 133; conditions of, for plague service, 136; inspections by, 139, 158, 251; volunteers for plague duty, 217, 219; request of, for guidance, 223; sickness of, 226; inoculation experiments by, 294; mentioned 50, 281
Poison, plague as, 287–90, 292–93
Pokhvisnev, Mikhail, 206–7, 209
Pokrovskii Monastery, 148, 155, 158, 216–17, 225
Pokrovskoe (Rubtsovo): place in Moscow of, 65–66, 73–74; violence in, 84–85; sudden deaths in, 156–57; medical

Pokrovskoe (continued)
inspection of, 162–63; textile working at, 171; looting in, 221; Catherine's memory of, 232; plague at, 236; incorporation in Moscow of, 273
Poland: epidemics in, before 1770, 13, 17–19, 25–26, 34; precautions toward, 115, 120, 161; war and natural calamities in, 107, 109; plague in, 107, 109–11, 114; partition of, 272, 276, 299
Poletika, Dr. Ivan, 34, 45, 111–12
Police, Moscow: definition of districts by, 65; statistics of, on population, 70; policy of, toward industry, 84–86, 91, 96–97; new corps of, proposed, 96; arrest Greek merchants, 116, 118; prohibit Turkish goods, 118; discover plague, 119; authorization of quarantines by, 128; on second outbreak, 129–30; role of, in precautions, 134–36, 138–39; relations of, with practitioners, 136–37; investigate outbreak, 140–41; expel vagrants, 165; problems and deficiencies of, 171–73; inspect markets, 177–78; deaths among, 180; failure of, to stop riot, 192; discovery of suspicious case by, 253; reorganization of, 272–73. See also Chief Police Administration
Police, Petersburg, 247–48
Police battalion, 173–74
Police Code of 1782, 271, 278
Polotsk, 12–13, 16
Polushkin (surgical apprentice), 219
Population: losses to Black Death, 14–15; Moscow's losses in 1654, 18–19; in Moscow, 70; migration to Moscow, 72–75; flight from Moscow, 142, 151, 174–75; effect of plague on, 258–59
Posnikov, Dr. Peter, 50
Possessional workers. See Labor, bondaged
Potemkin, Grigorii, 299–300
Povanarius, Ivan, 245
Prayers, public, role of, in antiplague precautions, 127, 149, 166, 251–53, 274
Preobrazhenskoe: housing in, 77–78; industry in, 85, 88–89; multiple deaths in, 158–60; infection of Admiralty mill at, 168; Old Believer cemetery at, 181, 274; looting in, 221; incorporation of, into Moscow, 268
Press, European, plague reports in, 109, 127, 174, 249–50
Press, Russian, plague reports in, 109, 126, 174, 205
Pringle, John, 282, 288
Prokhorov, Ivan, 181
Protasov, Grigorii, 138, 200
Provincial Reform. See Guberniia Reform
Prussia, 40, 107
Pskov: early epidemics in, 12–17, 22; antiplague precautions taken at, 30; plague reported near, 175
Pugachev Revolt, 62, 271–72, 276–77, 299
"Putrid Fever." See Typhus fever
Pylarino, Dr. Giacomo, 55

Quarantine: use of, against plague, 7; use of, in 1690, 21; border network of, established, 27, 30–31, 33–34, 44; at Kiev, 111–12; in Baltic Provinces, 114; problems of, 120; for clothworkers, 135–36; internal policies of, 137–38; and release of clothworkers, 155; mortality at, 141–42, 162, 226; construction authorized, 165; communal organization of, 169; removal of sick to, 173–74; releases from, 181; rioters attack, 193–94; commission search for, 216–17; money and clothes from, 219–20; popular horror of, 226; end of, 254; reorganization and expansion of, 280, 304
Quarantine legislation, 33, 127–28, 286
Quarantine policy: home vs. extramural, 136; term of isolation, 140; evacuation of clothworkers, 148–49; confinement, evacuation, and secrecy of, 157–60; changes in, 162; Lerche proposes changes in, 172; opposition to compulsory evacuation, 174–76; Catherine's reaffirmation of, 176; popular revulsion for, 178–79; Eropkin modifies, 180–81, 206–7; Saltykov criticizes, 185; rioters attack, 197; reinstitution of compulsory evacuation, 213–14; departures from Moscow, 232; at Petersburg, 249–50; tractates on, 292

Rag trade: Jewish involvement in, 114; linked to Nizhnii-Novgorod outbreak, 244; prohibition of, 139, 174–75, 180
Rats: role of, in plague, 5–7; numbers of, in Moscow, 67–69; infestation of housing by, 79; linked to textiles, 80, 86–87; attracted to grain, 107; and plague and cold weather, 225; tractates on, 292; changing species and populations of, 304
Red Square, 180, 186, 192–93, 227, 300
Registered industry, 80–85, 270
Religious responses to plague, 29–30, 186–95, 242–44, 302
Remer (surgeon), 247
Rendler, Johann, 59
Reval, 22, 33, 145
Riga, 22, 114

Rinder, Dr. Andrei: instructions to cordon surgeons by, 116; background of, 121–22; initial reaction of, to epidemic, 119–23; debates with Shafonskii, 121–24, 129, 145; doubts about plague of, 125, 143–45; inspection of Big Woolen Court by, 129, 132; culpability and death of, 131; role of, in antiplague effort, 133, 136–37; replacement of, 139; posthumous praise of, 150
Rinder, Dr. Yakov, 121
Roeslein, Friedrich, 129, 132
Rogozhskaia Drovers' Community, 170
Rogozhskaia Entryway, 139–40
Rogozhskoe, 181, 274
Rost, Johann, 69–70, 283–84, 288–89, 292
Rozhalin, Dr. Koz'ma, 50, 128
Rugan (surgeon), 239
Rumiantsev, Count Peter, 59–60, 103, 106–7, 109
Russo-Turkish War of 1736–39, 25–26, 28
Russo-Turkish War of 1768–74, 36–37, 57–60, 96, 271–72, 276
Rutzky, Dr. Il'ia, 284

Sablukov, Alexander, 173, 183–84, 201
St. Petersburg: escapes plague of 1709, 22; quarantine at, 33; public health facilities at, 40, 42, 47, 51; threat of epidemics to, 53–55; as model for Moscow, 62–63; on removal of industry, 91; and Kiev plague, 111, 113–15; on first Moscow outbreak, 125–29; concern for south at, 128–29; erratic weather at, 129, 153; on second Moscow outbreak, 145–50; precautions for trade at, 146–47, 150–51, 160–61; confidence in, 150; on third Moscow outbreak, 161, 173–74; fears for, 175–76, 245–46; population and layout of, 245–46; reaction at, to spread of plague and violence, 232, 238, 241; commercial depression at, 251
St. Petersburg Admiralty Hospital, 47
Saltykov, Count Peter: supervises cordon, 115–16; and plague in Sevsk, 116; on initial outbreak, 118, 120–21, 126, 128; reaction of, to second outbreak, 133–34; 140–42; friendship of, with Kuhlemann, 144; council criticism of, 145–46; role of, in precautions, 146, 148, 149; closure of enterprises by, 168; criticizes emergency program, 174–75; on catastrophe, 184–86; on plague in the hinterland, 232; leaves Moscow, 186; rioters' demands to, 197; reaction of, to rioting, 197–98; on Catherine's manifesto, 207; replacement and retirement of, 208, 226, 299
Samoilovich, Danilo: at syphilitic home, 54; Eropkin employs, 160; escapes from mob, 194; role of, in revised antiplague effort, 213, 215–16, 222, 251, 253; on losses, 257–58; rewards of, 280–81; tractate, 284; ideas of, on plague, 284–93; rivalry of, with Vien, 285–86; on inoculation, 295; on mural, 301
Sanchez, Dr. Antonio, 38
Schreiber, Dr. Johann, 33, 48, 56, 282
Schwartz, Benjamin, 182
Semenovskoe, 77–78, 85, 95
Senate: supervision of quarantines by, 28, 32–34; dispatch of Russians abroad by, 50; reform of, 61; restrictions on industry by, 89, 92; reduction of fabrikanty, 92–93
Senate, Moscow departments of: role of, 64; adoption of precautions by, 134, 136–40; cooperation of, with practitioners, 135, 140, 142–43, 149; postpones emergency program, 148–49; continues surveillance, 154–55; on third outbreak, 164–72; response of, to emergency program, 174–75; fears of subsistence crisis, 177–78; reaction of, to violence, 179–81; on communal quarantines, 180–81; postriot policies of, 206–7, 209–11, 220–21; on plague in provinces, 234; prohibits beggary, 252; on industry and workers, 252, 266; removal of slaughterhouses by, 273
Senate, Petersburg departments of: on Elachich case, 44; request practitioners, 109; on precautions, 126; on epidemic's decline, 150; on Moscow violence, 339 n. 3; local precautions for provinces proposed by, 232–33; precautions for couriers proposed by, 246; set double quarantine, 249–50; endorse removal of industry, 265
Septicemic plague, 3–4, 18–19, 112
Serikov, Grigorii, 156
Seven Years' War, 40, 51, 57, 72, 94–95
Shafonskii, Dr. Afanasii: study abroad and background of, 50, 122; discovery of first outbreak by, 118–20; debates with Rinder, 121–24; Famintsyn's accusations of, 128, 150; reaction of, to second outbreak, 133, 141–43, 152; and difficulties of diagnosis, 156–57; role of, in Lefortovo violence, 178–79; role of, in revised antiplague effort, 213, 215–16, 220, 224; examines suspicious cases, 251, 253; rewards of, 280–81; compiles tractate, 284; inspections and diagnoses by, 285–86; defense of policies by, 289–90; ideas of, on plague, 289–92

Shchepin, Dr. Konstantin, 47–48, 50
Shcherbinin, Evdokim, 109
Shipov, Mikhail, 115, 146, 218, 246
Shkiadan, Dr. Grigorii: at Big Woolen Court, 133; conditions for service of, 136; doubts plague, 144–45; absence of, from consilium, 163, 213; acknowledges plague, 165; plague duties of, 218; rewards of, 280
Shlefokht (surgeon), 248
Shtelin, Ivan, 170
Shtok (surgeon), 239
Sievers, Jakob, 146, 175–76, 246
Silk: Russian imports of, 28; enterprises in Moscow, 80, 82–84, 88–89; implication of, in first outbreak, 118; association of, with plague, 158–60
Simonov Monastery, 148, 155, 158, 162, 217–18
Sitnikov manufactory, 134–37, 140
Skorniakov, Aleksei, 267
Slaughterhouses, 96–97, 118, 139, 273
Slavo-Greco-Latin Academy, 46, 173, 263
Smallpox: epidemics of, before 1770, 16, 27; campaign against, 55–56; confusion of, with plague, 127; at Vvedenskie Hills, 149; at Yaroslavl, 239–40; in Novgorod guberniia, 249
Smirnov, Fedor, 245
Smolensk, 12, 15, 18, 33–34
Sobakin, Mikhail, 166, 172, 175, 206, 261
"Soldiers' Wives," 71, 84, 158
Staden, Heinrich von, 17, 31
Stoffeln, Christopher von, 102, 104–5
Stoffeln, Fedor, 25
Subsistence crisis: before 1770, 18–19, 21, 24; fears of, in Moscow, 165, 175–78, 184; effects of, in Moscow, 259, 263, 299; comparison of Moscow, 303
Suburbs, Moscow: housing in, 76–78; textile industry in, 80–81, 84–85, 92; third outbreak in, 155–63; plague in, 169–71, 230–31; unrest in, 178–79; Catherine's ire for, 232, 272; hidden bodies in, 252–53; population turnover in, 263; incorporation of, 272–73. See also Foreign Suburb; Krasnoe Selo; Lefortovo; Pokrovskoe; Preobrazhenskoe; Semenovskoe
Suffolk, Henry Howard, Earl of, 250–51
Sukin, Fedor, 134, 136–38, 168–69, 207, 210
Sulima, Semen, 283
Surgeons: status and numbers of, 37–40; origins and training of, 46–50
Surgeon's mates, 37–40
Surgical schools, 45–49, 60, 280
Surovshchikov, Vasilii, 86
Sutton, Robert, 56
Swallow, Samuel, 228, 249–50
Sydenham, Dr. Thomas, 282
Synod Choristers, 164, 333 n. 34
Syphilis, 54–56

Taganrog, 21, 33
Tames, Ivan, 88, 168–69, 199, 266, 270
Tatarinov, Adrian, 140, 217, 220
Tatarinov, Ivan, 267
Taverns, 139–40, 164, 192–94, 196–97
Teplov, Grigorii: role of, in medical reforms, 42–43, 58; correspondence of, with Amvrosii, 149–50; drafts precautions, 127–28, 146, 214
Textiles: linked with plague, 20, 24, 28, 107, 116, 118, 156–60, 168–69, 289, 298, 302; industry in Moscow, 79–89, 92, 118; investigation of, 138; relocation of, 154
Theyls, Dr. Ivan de, 59, 103
Tode (staff-surgeon), 224
Tolchenov, Ivan, 153, 233, 243–44
Torzhok, 18, 246
"Trading Peasants," 73, 265
Transylvania, 25–26, 107
Troitskoe-Golenishchevo, 148, 155, 158, 159, 181, 217
Tsaritsyn Meadow, 87, 169
Tsarkoe Selo, 247, 300
Tula, 151, 229–30, 243, 245
Turkish war. See Russo-Turkish War of 1736–39; Russo-Turkish War of 1768–74
Tver, 15, 27, 209, 246–47
Typhus fever: role of lice in, 5; early epidemics of, 12, 15–17, 20–21; confused with plague, 103, 143–44, 150, 157, 160, 253, 292

Ugreshskii Monastery: as pesthouse, 134, 136, 148–49, 155, 157, 162; outbreaks near, 170; internment of beggars at, 211, 266
Uhktomskii, Prince Dmitrii, 94–95
Ukraine: plagues in, before 1770, 17, 22, 25–26; Russian colonization of, 27–28; reorganization of, 34, 61; practitioners from, 39, 46, 50; reactions to plague in, 107, 109; shortage of practitioners in, 115; livestock drives from, 128; plague alarm in, 128–29; Vien's service in, 286

Vagrants, 121, 139, 165
Val (surgeon), 136
Valerian, Kaspar, 241
Varvarskie Gates, 186–92, 221, 224, 274–75
Vasil'kov, 33–34, 112

Velikolutskii Regiment, 173, 180, 197, 200
Venereal disease, 32, 54–55, 123–24
Veniaminov, Dr. Peter, 49–50, 133, 139, 251
Venice, 19, 127
Vereshchagin (garrison-officer), 189–90
Viazemskii, Prince Alexander, 90, 174, 249–50, 265
Vien, Ivan, 284–93, 295, 301, 349 n. 12
Vinegar, as disinfectant, 28, 129, 162, 172, 183–84, 209–10, 220
Vinnitsa, 26, 107
Violence: linked to plague, 30, 35; threatened at Kiev, 112–13; in Moscow, 113, 175, 177–78, 190–92, 302–3. See also Plague Riot
Voeikov, Fedor, 109–11, 113–15
Volga River, 12, 17–18, 238, 304
Volkonskii, Prince Mikhail, 226–28, 251, 253, 265, 271–73, 276, 299
Volkov, Dmitrii, 28, 127–28, 146, 208, 212–16, 253, 268, 274
Vologda, 18–19
Volotskii, Semen, 178–79, 219
Voltaire. See Arouet, François-Marie
Voronezh, 21, 32, 42
Vorontsov, Count Alexander, 237–38
Voskresenskie Gates, 192, 196
Vsevolozhskii, Vsevolod, 203
Vvedenskie Hills: hospital annex at, 95; epidemic at, 118–24, 128, 144, 149, 151; foreign cemetery at, 181, 274; mortality at, 252, 257

Warfare: and epidemics, 16–18, 20, 25–26, 36, 299; impact of, on medical services, 36, 40, 46, 60, 94–95, 109
Weather: effect of, on plague, 4, 7–8; role of, in plagues before 1770, 16, 22, 24–26; aberrations in, in 1769–71, 59, 96–97, 102. 107–8, 111, 113–14, 118, 120–21, 124; linked to disease by Shafonskii, 124; and second Moscow outbreak, 125, 127, 129, 150–51; influence of, on third outbreak, 152–57, 172–73, 182, 184, 200–201, 212, 224–26; role of, in provincial outbreaks, 239–40, 248, 254; arrival of spring, 252–53; debated in tractates, 288; role of, in Moscow epidemic, 298; and retreat of plague, 304
Wendrich, Dr. Christian, 241
Weszpremi, Dr. Istvan, 294
Wiel, Dr. Christian, 22
Wilckens, Johann, 54
Witchcraft, implication of, in plague, 14, 30, 107, 113, 244
Woensel, Pieter van, 284, 292, 295
Wolf, Johann, 44
Wood: inflation and impact of, 72; use of, in Moscow, 78–79; use of, in industry, 80, 85, 87, 89, 92; in Kiev, 110–11
Wool, Russian imports of, 28, 80, 82–83, 86–89, 118, 138
Workshops, textile, 80–86, 92, 270–71

Yagel'skii, Dr. Kas'ian: at Moscow Hospital, 48; discovery of second outbreak by, 130, 133, 135–36; on evacuation, 140; inspection of district cases by, 140, 153, 162, 170; and difficulties of diagnosis, 156, 158–59; medical advisory of, 182–83, 207, 283; role of, in revised antiplague effort, 213, 215–16, 222; examination of suspicious cases by, 251, 253; rewards of, 280–81; mentioned, 50, 291
Yakhontov, Grigorii, 143
Yakovlev, Savva, 239–40
Yaroslavl, 19, 169, 230, 235, 238–41, 244
Yauza River, 46, 87–88, 169, 276
Yersinia pestis: discovery of, 1; strains of, 2; changes over time, 7. See also Bubonic plague
Yushkov, Ivan: on peasant migrations, 73; on spring and burials, 129; role of, in precautions, 138, 170, 177; appears before council, 147; on plague around Moscow, 176, 232, 234–35; helps suppress riot, 195, 197; mentioned, 189, 239

Zamoskvorech'e, 65, 76, 80, 86–88, 156–57, 173
Zaporozhian cossacks, 19–20, 25, 27
Zemlianoi Gorod, 65, 76
Zimmermann, Dr. Johann, 280
Zurburg, Aleksandr, 138, 253
Zybelin, Dr. Semen, 49–50, 133, 140, 168, 215, 223

Contents

Preface xi

Acknowledgments xv

Note on Dates and Transliteration xvii

Introduction. Bubonic Plague, Fleas, and Rats 1

PART ONE:
Historical Background, Medical Context, and Urban Setting

1. Plague Epidemics and Antiplague Precautions in Russia to 1770 11
2. Medical Professionals and Public Health in Russia to 1770 36
3. Catherine II and Moscow on the Eve of the Plague (1762–70) 61

PART TWO:
The Course of the Epidemic

4. Origins and Outbreak of the Plague (Spring 1770–Winter 1770/71) 101
5. Official Negligence, Medical Incompetence, or Another False Alarm? (January–May 1771) 125
6. A Pestilential Summer (April–September 1771) 152
7. The Plague Riot (September 1771) 177
8. The Orlov Mission and the Plague Commission (September 1771–January 1772) 202
9. The Plague in the Provinces and the Threat to Petersburg (August 1771–August 1775) 229

PART THREE:
The Epidemic's Impact and Consequences

10. The Plague's Impact on Moscow 257
11. Medical Reactions and Debates: Plague Tractates from Russia 279

Conclusions and Comparisons 297

Appendix 1. Doctors and Surgeons in Moscow in March 1771 305
Appendix 2. Students at the Moscow Surgical School in 1770–71 307

Abbreviations 309

Notes 311

Selected Bibliography 353

Index 373

ILLUSTRATIONS

Figures

1. View of the Moscow Kremlin and the Stone Bridge 68
2. In Zamoskvorech'e, a good illustration of the contrast between simple wooden structures and larger masonry palaces and churches 77
3. Façades of the Big Woolen Court in Moscow in 1746 87
4. Façades of the Kadashevskii Court, formerly the mint, in eighteenth-century Moscow 88
5. Portrait of Catherine II 117
6. Portrait of Field Marshal Count Peter Semenovich Saltykov 117
7. General and Senator Peter Dmitrievich Eropkin 147
8. The Varvarskie Gates in the wall of Kitai-gorod in central Moscow 187
9. The Plague Riot 193
10. The murder of Archbishop Amvrosii by a mob in Moscow 194
11. Stone cross erected on the spot where Archbishop Amvrosii was killed 195
12. Aleksei and Grigorii Orlov 209
13. The Orlov Gates in Tsarskoe Selo (present-day Pushkin) 227
14. A photograph of the former Big Woolen Court in Moscow before its demolition in 1937 269

Maps

1. European Russia and northern and eastern Europe, with main towns and rivers 23
2. Moscow, showing the fourteen police districts, watercourses, and main suburbs 66
3. The textile industry in Moscow in 1773 81
4. Progress of the plague from Moldavia to Moscow, 1770–71 104
5. Locations of the Plague Riot in Moscow 191
6. Moscow Guberniia and Central Russia 231

Graphs

1. Deaths of persons attached to the Big Woolen Court (1 January–9 March 1771) 131
2. Daily mortality, 1 July–31 August 1771 161
3. Daily mortality in September 1771 185
4. Daily mortality, 1 October–8 December 1771 224

TABLES

1. Growth of M.D.'s in Early Modern Russia 39
2. The Social Structure of Moscow's Population in the Late Eighteenth Century 75
3. "Middle" Population Groups in Moscow in 1764 75
4. Ownership, Distribution, and Composition of Messuages (Dvory) before and after the Plague 76
5. Brick and Wooden Messuages by City Regions 79
6. Registered Textile Manufactories in Moscow in 1771, before the Plague 83
7. Growth of Hired Labor at Moscow's Registered Manufactories, by Social Origin 84
8. Social Origins of Alleged Rioters 199
9. Deaths in Moscow Guberniia, 1769–73 235
10. Deaths from Plague in the Moscow District in 1771–72 237
11. Deaths Recorded in Tula Province, 1769–75 243
12. Vital Statistics for Moscow Guberniia and Moscow Province, 1769–75 258
13. Ages of Male Deaths in Moscow Guberniia, 1770–74 259
14. Births and Deaths in Moscow, 1771–75 259
15. Distribution of Housing in Moscow before and after the Plague 264
16. Monthly Mortality in London, Marseilles, Debrecen, and Moscow 303